Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	Endowment funds, classified as permanently restricted net assets, represent cash contributions that are subject to restrictions of gift instruments requiring that the principal be invested in perpetuity. Earnings from investments may be used for general operating purposes and transferred to unrestricted net assets through appropriation under UPMIFA guidelines.
Part X FIN48 Footnote	Income TaxesFinancial statement presentation follows the recommendations of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC 740, EBPA is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by EBPA and requires a two-step process that separates recognition from measurement. The first step is determining whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold, the second step is measuring a tax position that meets the recognition threshold. Management believes that EBPA has adequately evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of June 30, 2014, EBPA does not have any uncertain tax positions for which a reserve or an accrual for a tax liability would be necessary. EBPA has received notification from the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. This exemption is subject to periodic review by the federal and state taxing authorities and management is confident that EBPA continues to satisfy all federal and state statutes in order to qualify for continued tax exemption status. EBPA may periodically receive unrelated business income requiring EBPA to file separate tax returns under federal and state statutes. Under such conditions, EBPA calculates and accrues the applicable taxes payable.
